

The Prince's Trust Team Programme With The Fire & Rescue Service

Dorset and Wiltshire Fire and Rescue Service are proud to be working in partnership with The Prince's Trust to deliver the Team programme across Bournemouth and Poole to help support young people aged between 16 and 25 to recognise and achieve their potential. Take part in an action packed 12 weeks where you will get to: take part in an activity based residential, improve your confidence and meet new people, gain qualifications including Emergency First Aid at Work, plan and complete a community project, complete a work placement, build up your CV and employability skills and learn how to look after your health and wellbeing
