

Abbotsbury Swannery

Abbotsbury Swannery near Weymouth has become one of the most popular things to do for the families visiting Dorset and those who live locally. Located on the beautiful Dorset Coast, this natural wildlife habitat is also popular with film makers, this location has even been used in a Harry Potter film. Come down to Abbotsbury Swannery and help hand feed 600 swans at midday and 4pm daily. Other activities include getting lost in the largest willow maze in Dorset, swing on the swinging nests play area, have a break in the Kennels Café or browse the gift shop. The swans at Abbotsbury are all free flying: this is a sanctuary, not a zoo. There are no cages.
