

Golden Cap Stonebarrow Hill - The National Trust

Stunning coastline and England's only natural World Heritage Site. The great rocky shoulder of Golden Cap offers magnificent views at every compass point. On a clear day you can see across Lyme Bay to Dartmoor. Stonebarrow Hill is a great starting point for 25 miles of footpaths around the Golden Cap estate. An old radar station houses a National Trust information point. An all-ability circular trail takes you through the woodlands of Langdon Hill Wood. Rich in wildlife, they are home to large numbers of 'blue' butterfly in summer and many different fungi in autumn. Finally, high on the cliffs you'll find the ancient Thorncombe Beacon.
