

Deafblind Uk

We support people with combined sight and hearing loss to live the lives they want. Whether they need some support to get back on their feet after a diagnosis, a helping hand to help do the things they love, someone to turn to when they're feeling low or some information, advice and guidance, we're here to help. Losing your sight and hearing can be frightening. Our vision is that people living with a combined sight and hearing loss have the same rights, access and opportunities as others.
