

Sandford St Martin's Primary School

Local Authority School. At Sandford St Martin's Primary School, we have a large, modern, well-designed building with spacious grounds, but still have the ethos of a village school. More importantly, we are a caring school with a real community feel. We encourage each other to be courteous towards each other, develop independence and achieve well within a supportive environment of mutual respect. We are a forward thinking school providing exciting opportunities for your children.
