

Sturminster Newton Mill

Sturminster Newton Mill is one of a series of ancient flour mills built on the River Stour. Still in good working order, the Mill provides a unique opportunity to journey back to a simpler time, where you and your family can discover the age-old secrets of harnessing natural power amidst the tranquil beauty of the read Dorset countryside. Come along and enjoy the riverside views, a picnic area alongside the river Stour and country walks for all the family to enjoy.
