

Activity Alliance - Disability Inclusion Sport

Activity alliance disability inclusion sport is a charity working to make active lives possible with a vision that disabled people are active for life. We enable organisations to support more disabled people to be active. We build partnerships to increase the number of disabled people taking part. We work with organisations to enhance their work with disabled people. We team up with partners and our members to make active lives possible. We develop our support through ongoing research. Our programmes and resources can help you to include disabled people more effectively.
